

LEONARD CHARLES
Acquires Firm Title

Rivieran Takes
Control of L.A.
Printing Firm

Leonard Charles, 225 Via Los Altos, Hollywood Riviera, founder of Leonard & Assoc., Inc., Los Angeles printing and photographic firm, this week acquired sole ownership of the company through purchase of outstanding stock.

He entered the printing field in 1922 and established his own company in 1942. Due to expansion the company moved into its own building at 955 Venice Blvd., Los Angeles, three years ago.

Charles has lived in Hollywood Riviera for the past four years, and was previously a Manhattan Beach resident for 20 years where he was active in civic affairs. He is a member of Hermosa Beach Masonic Lodge 557, Al Malaikah Shrine, Redondo Beach Elks Lodge 1378, and the Los Angeles Squires Club. He has served five years as a director of the Printing Industries Assoc. of Los Angeles.

Surprise Call
Means Happier
Yule to Family

The Vincent Geiger family, who were aided last month by Torrance Marine Corps recruiters and area residents after Geiger was stricken with a heart attack received a surprise call Friday. The callers, from a local industrial plant, who wish to remain anonymous, brought the family a turkey, a ham and all the trimmings for a Christmas dinner. The six Geiger children also were given clothes and toys.

Geiger, who had been unemployed for several months, has been confined in the Veterans Hospital in Long Beach.

CHP Returns
Torrance Man
To Southland

Lieut. Arthur E. Allen, with the message and dispatch center at the California Highway Patrol's Sacramento Headquarters, has been transferred to the West Los Angeles Area office, Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden announced this week.

Lieutenant Allen, a Torrance resident, reports for duty at his station Jan. 9.

A highway patrolman since June, 1948, Lieutenant Allen has been stationed at Sacramento since September, 1960, when he became a lieutenant. He was promoted to sergeant in 1954.

Victor Precinct
Students to Flavian

Students from a new 44-home tract southeast of Victor and Del Amo will attend Flavian School for this year only, the Board of Education decided Tuesday night. They will attend Victor Elementary when it is completed next September.

Children from the new tract can walk to Flavian, where new classrooms recently were completed, the board was told. Ordinarily they would have attended Meadow Park School, which is heavily loaded.

Marines Pfc. Dave L. Bush, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Bankard of 22812 Broadwell Ave., Torrance, and Pfc. Jerry L. Helmrich, son of Mrs. Anna M. Helmrich, 21900 S. Figueroa, returned to Camp Pendleton Dec. 8 with the Eleventh Marine Regiment, an artillery unit of the First Marine Division, following a two-week firing exercise at Marine Corps Base, Twentynine Palms.
